ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM THE AUTOMATIC STAY

On June 1, 2006, a hearing was held on the Motion by Glenn Hagele (“Movant”) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362 to modify the automatic stay entered in this case to permit the Movant to proceed with prosecution of a pending California civil suit entitled “Glenn Hagele v. Brent Hanson, and DOES 1 through 20 (the “Lawsuit”). The alleged basis for the Lawsuit is character defamation, both pre-petition and post-petition, and the complaint was filed March 3, 2006. The Movant has requested relief from the automatic stay nunc pro tunc. At the hearing, Neil O’Toole, Esq. appeared on behalf of the Debtor, and Richard M. Hutson, II, Standing Trustee appeared and stated to the Court that all matters in controversy had been settled. The Court, after considering the Motion and having heard and considered the statements of the Trustee, finds that the Motion should be granted; therefore, by and with the consent of the parties, it is ORDERED:

1. The Motion of the Movant for relief from the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362 is granted nunc pro tunc as of March 3, 2006.
2. The stay is modified to permit the Movant to proceed with the Lawsuit.
3. Upon determination of the Lawsuit, no enforcement of any judgment or disposition of property shall be taken against property of the estate until further Orders of this Court.
